Prelude: God of Grace and God of Glory

Call to Worship: The Apostles' Creed – I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hades; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian church, the communion of the saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen

We welcome Zac Leach to bring God's Word today

Our deep love for our grandchildren provides a beautiful background for sharing God's love with them. By Stephanie Murphy in Mature Living

1. Be close to God. 2. Be close to your grandchildren. 3. Tell them your stories. 4. Share the gospel with them. 5. Teach them to look to the Bible as their source of truth. 6. Help them to understand their identity in Christ. 7. Give them hope. As grandparents, we are entrusted with giving our grandchildren a firm foundation of faith. It is not an easy task. The time in which we live compels us to be intentional about the challenge before us as we continue to let our light shine and prayerfully seek God's guidance. (Psalm 78:4)

Don't forget the greatest thing we can do for God or for man is to pray.
