A Life-Changing Encounter

“I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne.” (Isaiah 6:1)
The highlight is the vision of the Lord, His train filling the temple and His angels calling, “Holy, holy, holy.” Isaiah’s thoughts were filled with nothing but God’s holiness and his own sinfulness. We need to realize that what Isaiah saw is happening all the time. Right now, seraphs are surrounding His throne and shouting “Holy, holy, holy.” Let that scene fuel your worship today. Knowing that, give Him everything today. The One on the throne, whether you see Him or not, is worthy of that response. {An article in Indeed devotional} Additional Reading: Daniel 7:9-14
