What Is Reformation Day All About? By Robert Rothwell

It's Reformation day, which commemorates what was perhaps the greatest move of God's Spirit since the days of the Apostles. Martin Luther's nailing of his ninety-five theses to the door on October 31, 1517, provoked a debate that culminated finally in what we call the Protestant Reformation. Today, Luther's legacy lives on in the creeds and confessions of Protestant bodies worldwide. As we consider his importance this Reformation Day, let us equip ourselves to be knowledgeable proclaimers and defenders of biblical truth. May we be eager to preach the Gospel of God to the world and thereby spark a new reformation of church and culture.

Don't forget the greatest thing we can do for God or for man is to pray. Let's spend time with the Lord in prayer, in repentance, in thanksgiving, and presenting our petitions before Him.
