Dear Father, in Your beautiful book of Psalms, chapter 103 and verse 17, You give us this wonderful promise, 'From everlasting to everlasting the Lord's love is with those who fear him, and his righteousness with their children's children.' What better promise could we receive from You in the autumn of our lives than to see our children and children's children blessed with Your love and righteousness? We ask for Your hand of blessing on us as well. Bless us with strength to be there for those we love, and wisdom to know what to say to bring comfort, encouragement, and sometimes difficult truth. We will need Your patience as we wait for Your perfect will and way in each of our loved one's lives. We are so grateful, Lord God. Amen

Don't forget the greatest thing we can do for God or for man is to pray.
